THE HASELEY SOFA

A small traditionally upholstered sofa with a low back and out-swept arms and seat, with a loosely gathered skirt to the base.
Ideal as an end-of-bed sofa or for a smaller scale room.
Named after Haseley Court, Nancy Lancaster's home from 1953.

The sofa frame is constructed in solid hardwood (beech) and is traditionally upholstered with natural materials and filling and has a coil sprung seat.

Made in the UK in a fabric of your choice.

6.5m of main fabric required – 2m of contrast fabric.
